Arguments Against Secession.

The Alabama State Sentinel presents to its readers the following arguments in opposition to the secession of Alabama from the Union, and the formation of a separate government. The editor of the Sentinel has long been a leading democrat of that State:

"Dissolve the Union, and you dissolve the fugitive slave law. Do this, and you convert every State into a Canadian province. You could not of right demand your slaves in Arkansas. When did you ever recapture a slave from Canada or Mexico?

"Now, turn to the map of the United States! Look at the situation of Delaware and Maryland. What is to prevent their slaves from going to Pennsylvania and New Jersey? Turn to Virginia and Kentucky. Side by side you have Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. The river is frozen in winter. It is dry or shallow in summer. A man can swim it, cross it in a boat, on a plank, a raft, or on a log, at any season.

"Look at Missouri, Arkansas and Texas, particularly Missouri. There is Illinois on the east, Iowa on the north, and Kansas on the west, all free States. Dissolve the Union, and they become to Missouri, each of them, foreign governments, precisely such as Canada and Mexico, where your slave, once he enters, had as well be dead or free. In the Union, as things remain, the slave knows he is liable to be pursued and brought back, and will not hazard the attempt to escape. Out of the Union, and he soon learns that every farm house, every hamlet and village is a city of refuge, and beyond question he would go any length to get over the line. Here are five States in this condition. They cannot dispense with the constitution and the fugitive slave law.

"But we will form "treaties." Yes, when one can make a bargain and have things all his own way. We have treaties with England and Mexico, but none we know of reached the case. If we cannot live together under the constitution, or consent to have the laws enforced, it is folly to delude ourselves with the hopes of a treaty for the return of fugitives from either justice or labor.

"But we will pursue our slaves, if need be, with a hundred men." "Yes, and they will resist with two hundred men."

"Then we will bring five hundred."

"And they will bring a thousand."

"What comes next but an armed invasion, and proclamation offering freedom to the slave? These five States poll nearly half a million, more than two-fifths of the entire vote of the South."

Loss of Two Propellers.

The Buffalo Courier says that the widespread destruction which the late storm brought to the shipping of the Lower Lakes culminated in two of the most terrible disasters which have ever occured upon our inland waters.

The propeller Dacotah, which left Buffalo on Friday evening, bound for Chicago, with a cargo of 282 tons of merchandise, was wrecked on the American shore, near Evans Centre, seventeen or eighteen miles from Buffalo. Fragments of her hull and large quantities of her cargo have been washed ashore. It does not appear that any of her passengers or crew (twenty persons in all) were saved. The position of the steamer when last seen indicates that she had neglected to retreat until the gale became charged with blinding snow, and then, endeavoring to change her course, had become overmastered by its fury and driven helplessly upon the rocks which line the shore in the region the wreck was found.

The propeller Jersey City, which left Toledo on Friday morning for Dunkirk, was driven ashore on Saturday, two miles from Long Point, and became a total wreck.—Sixteen of her crew and one passenger were lost. Those saved report that nearly all reached the shore, but perished in the snow storm. The two engineers were found frozen to death, locked in each other's arms. The cargo is strewed along the beach for miles.

Railroad Accident.

A sad accident occurred about noon of Thursday last, on the Beaver Meadow railroad, about six miles from Mauch Chunk, (Pa.) The usual train, consisting of one baggage and one passenger car, left Mauch Chunk about 11.15, P. M. The car was full, many of them having left with the intention of spending Thanksgiving day at different places on the line. When opposite Beaver Creek Dam a rail broke, and the trucks having been thrown from the track; the passenger car was tossed sideways into the Lehigh river, down an embankment over fifteen feet in height. Many of the inmates of the car were ladies. So sudden was the shock that four of these were injured so seriously as to be unable to escape from the broken car after it had reached the river. Five persons, as far as known, were either killed by the fall or drowned. Their names are as follows: Robert Nichols, conductor; Mrs. Farrow and sister, of Beaver Meadow; Miss Smith and sister, of Mauch Chunk. As soon as the car settled in the water the roof was broken open by those of the train hands who were uninjured. A number of persons were extricated through their agency. The water was about twenty feet deep at the spot. Many of the passengers escaped through the windows, and several jumped from the car in its rapid descent. The locomotive and remainder of the train did not leave the track. It appears singular that the rail, which sustained the weight of numerous heavy coal trains, should have broken during the passage of a light passenger car.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT FROM BURNING FLUID.—The wife of Capt. Wm. Titus, and her sister, Mrs. Durat, residing at Centreport, L. I., were burned to death a few days since. A little child of Mrs. Titus had a fluid lamp in her hand, which she was directed to put upon the table. Instead of doing so, she threw the lamp into her mother's lap, where it exploded. Mrs. Titus, in her fright, threw the lamp from her at random, and it fell into the lap of her sister. The clothing of both women were saturated with the inflammable fluid, and set on fire; before the flames could be extinguished they were so badly burned that they died the next day.

COWHIDED.—A young Baltimorean was cowhided in Richmond, Va., on Wednesday night, by an actress, to whom he is alleged to have made insulting proposals.

THE ADAMS SENTINEL.

GETTYSBURG:

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 5, 1860.

County Officers.

On Saturday last, Mr. BAILEY, Prothonotary elect, Mr. MARTIN, Register elect, and Mr. EICHOLTZ, Clerk of the Courts elect, were qualified—and on Monday last took possession of their several offices.

The retiring officers, Messrs. BUSHEY, MYERS and WOLF, have been excellent officers—their attention to business, their politeness and courtesy to all, and their correctness in discharge of duty, we, as political opponents, honestly and cheerfully give our tribute to.

☞The Cadets' Exhibition will take place to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at the "Blues' Hall." Tickets, 20 cents, to be had of any of the Cadets. Doors open at 6 o'clock—to commence at 6½ o'clock.—Music by the American Brass Band.

New Post Office.

The Postmaster General has established a Post Office at Whitestown, in this County, and appointed JESSE SMYERS Post Master. The office is named Idaville. It is on the Bendersville route, and will be served three times a week.

Brigade Staff.

Brigadier General C. H. BUEHLER has made the following appointments:

Aid-de-Camp—FRANKLIN HERSH, (with rank of Captain.)

Quarter Master—C. B HAINES, (with rank of Captain.)

Pay-Master—F. B. PICKING, (with rank of Captain.)

Surgeon—Dr. THEODORE T. TATE, (with rank of Major)

Judge Advocate—WM. A. DUNCAN, Esq, (with rank of Major.)

These gentlemen are all "first-rate," and will fill their respective offices in the most acceptable manner—ready for any emergency.

☞JOHN S. ROBINSON, Esq., formerly of Fairfield, has been appointed Professor of Mathematics, Natural Philosophy and Astronomy, in Madison College, Sharon, Mississippi.

Ladies' Fair.

A Fair for the benefit of St. Joseph's Female Academy, at McSherrystown, will open in the Institution on Monday, the 17th of December next, and continue throughout the week. No effort is being spared to make it a creditable and handsome affair, and the citizens there should give it the proper encouragement.

Our Juries.

A startling fact has been exhibited at our last Court in regard to our Juries. Of the 24 Grand Jurors, all were Democrats except 4; and of the 36 General Jurors, all were Democrats except 7—and outside of Hamiltonban township there were but 4 Jurors from the whole County that were not Democrats! Now it is very clear from the late demonstrations, that parties are very nearly balanced in the County; and the fact that but 4 out of 24 of the Grand Jury, and but 7 out of 36 of the General Jury were taken from the Republican party, shows a partisan action far from being commendable. We hope that this evil will be at once remedied by those gentlemen who have it in charge to select Jurors. Surely they can find as many in the Republican ranks as well qualified as in the other, and we do think there should be some semblance of equality in this matter.

Secession.

☞Washington has been, for the last few days, the scene of unusual excitement. The Southerners come on full of fire, and openly proclaim secession. It is thought that from one to three States will secede, if they can muster the nerve. They will have to "face the music," if they venture upon such an undertaking. Our opinion is, that they will BLUSTER a little—a little compromise will be offered, by an honest yielding of what has been done wrong in the North—and our glorious Union will be perpetuated forever, and no flag known on the wide ocean, hailing from our vast territory, but the Stars and Stripes.

☞Some of the ultra Abolitionists called a meeting at the Tremont Temple, in Boston, on Monday evening, in commemoration of John Brown. The Union men, however, headed them off, and passed a series of resolutions denouncing John Brown, justifying his execution, and lauding the course of Virginia in the affair. Fred Douglass, Redpath, Sanborn, and others of that class, vainly endeavored to be heard; and finally the police was called in, who cleared the Temple, by order of the Mayor.—Right!

☞On Sunday morning week, a fire broke out at the corner of Church street, New York, which destroyed two extensive warehouses, extending the entire length of the block, occupied almost entirely as dry good stores. The fire was not extinguished until after ten hours' hard labor. There was an area of fire 200 feet in length by 50 in width, upon which the firemen had to work. The wind was very high at the time. The loss is estimated at half a million of dollars. There is a full insurance.

Congress.

Both Houses of Congress assembled at Washington on Monday.

In the Senate, 17 members were absent. In the House 190 members answered to their names. All the South Carolina members, but one, were present. Of the Louisiana delegation, but one answered. There was not anything of interest done. Committees were appointed to wait upon the President, and inform him that a quorum was ready to receive any communication from him; and it being informally understood that the President would not send in his Message that day, the Houses adjourned at 1 o'clock. Every thing appeared to move on calmly and peaceably. Caucuses were held daily and nightly, on both sides—but nothing definite had yet made its appearance from either.

☞We had hoped the Message of the President would reach us by Tuesday's mail—but, as it has not, we will not delay our paper beyond our regular publication-day. It is understood, that the President is decided against the secession of any State, and intimates strongly that his oath requires him to see to it that the Federal laws are executed. He deprecates coercion, and recommends a Constitutional Convention of all the States for the purpose of settling all the difficulties in regard to the Slave question.

☞Mr. Douglas made a speech in Washington on Saturday night to an assemblage of probably 2,000 persons. He took high conservative ground. He held the Fugitive Slave law to be binding upon all good citizens, and if it had been carried out in good faith the Republic would not now be in peril and danger. He endorsed every sentiment, he said, of the speech of Mr. Stephens, of Ga., and it inspired him with the hope that there was a party yet strong enough to save the country. He urged all Union men, all constitution-loving men, to sink their bickerings and unite to save the country first, and quarrel, if they pleased, afterwards. Mr. Lincoln having been elected according to the Constitution, he must be inaugurated according to that Constitution. What is there to fear? Congress will be against him. If he violates his oath, violates the Constitution, or makes war upon the rights of any section or anybody, he can be impeached, for the Senate still enjoys the confidence of the country. He again exhorted his friends not to indulge in recrimination: to let by-gones be by-gones, and to unite for the preservation of the Union. He concluded by saying that on Monday he should resume his seat in the Senate without prejudice or ill-feeling towards any one except the foes of his country.

☞Washington is full of rumors of propositions to compromise our present difficulties; and we have every reason to believe that the matters in dispute will be amicably arranged, and that "all will be right in the morning."

☞Hitherto, in the history of this country, it has been the custom of men of all parties to patriotically acquiesce in the lawful choice of a President by the people.—The contest once over, all have united to hold up the hands of our chief magistrate, and to accord him a fair trial before opposing his administration. Now we find a state of things totally different. The members of one political party refuse to abide by the result of a popular election, and threaten to plunge us all into the horrors of dissolution because they are not suffered to rule perpetually. What will become of our cherished freedom when the dragon of secession shall take the place of reason and justice?

☞Many of the noblest sons of the South have taken the stump and are faithfully and fearlessly at work stemming the tide of disunion urged forward by the enemies of our country. The supporters of Bell and Douglas are almost to a man found battling against the evil which the balked devotees of slavery have brought upon us. They stand up for the Union against all comers, and will be found ready to accord a hearty adhesion to the government whose head will be Abraham Lincoln, of Illinois. One of the most prominent champions of the Union in the very midst of the secessionists is the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, who delivered a stirring speech at Milledgeville, two weeks since, to a crowded audience. Though frequently interrupted by Mr. Toombs, who had made a disunion speech at the same place on the preceding evening, Mr. Stephens was enthusiastically applauded, and evidently was sustained in his views by the great majority of his hearers.

☞The news from the republic of Peru is important. Mr. Clay, United States minister, by direction of his government, has suspended diplomatic relations between the United States and Peru, in consequence of the refusal of the latter to agree to the proposals made by the former for the adjustment of the claims of their citizens growing out of the seizure and confiscation of the two vessels, the Lizzie Thompson and Georgiana. The seizure was made on the ground that they were illegally loading guano. Mr. Clay and family were to embark on board the United States steamer of war Wyoming, for Panama, which latter place he was expected to reach in time to take the steamer leaving Aspinwall for New York on the 25th ult.

Thanksgiving Day.

This was observed by our citizens in a very creditable manner. There was a general suspension of business, and a large attendance upon the religious exercises of the day.

The Union Thanksgiving Exercises held in St. James' (Luth.) Church, were of an unusually interesting character. The morning was beautiful, and by 10 o'clock an immense congregation had assembled to hear the Annual Sermon.

The order of exercises was introduced by the choir singing a joyful Anthem.

The Hymn beginning "Praise, happy land, Jehovah's name," was announced by Rev. Prof. MUHLENBERG, of Pennsylvania College, who also read the 8th chapter of Deuteronomy. Prayer by Rev. H. G. DILL, of the M. E. Church.

Second Hymn—

"My country! 'Tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty!"
Of thee I sing," &c.

The Rev. T. P. BUCHER, of the German Reformed Church, then proceeded with the discourse, founded on Isaiah, 33d chap. 6th verse:—"Wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the Lord is his treasure." We give a synopsis.:

The language first applied to Hezekiah and his times. But the principle hailing from the Divine Administration, was appropriate to all Christian Nations—to our own especially at this day.

After enumerating the memories of our Heavenly Father's goodness and mercy in the past year, as a ground of Thankfulness, what, as the Christian patriot looks forward, what shall be our Future? The answer to the question involved in the text—the theme of which is "CHRISTIANITY THE STABILITY AND SAFEGUARD OF OUR NATIONAL INSTITUTIONS."

I. Under the institutions of the Mosaic dispensation, as long as the Jewish nation remained true to their birthright, it was enlightened, virtuous and free This prophecy of the text was sustained by the subsequent history of this ancient Hebrew Commonwealth.

II. The New Testament dispensation asserted the principles of the Old with vitalized force and distinctness. Up to the dawn of the Reformation, and subsequently, we want examples clearly illustrating the influence of the Christian element upon the nation, per se, until the birth of the American Nationality, which is, a priori, Christian—the antitype of Old Israel.

The principles, which brought the Puritans to New England, the Reformed to New Netherlands (now New York), the Friends to Pennsylvania, the Catholics to Maryland, and the Episcopalians to Virginia, were those principles which entered into the fabric of our Institutions, when those Christian freemen founded on our shores the EMPIRE OF LIBERTY. Luther had eliminated them from the Bible, and under God sent them forth with that flood of light and glory which aroused many slumbering people to a consciousness of their civil and religious rights

III. Our past history, as a nation, confirms the application of the principle.

Once thirteen Colonies—now thirty-three sovereign States. Three millions of people have become thirty millions in less than a century; and our flocks of cattle have increased a thousand fold. In every respect, in the wonderful expansion of our borders—in foreign and inland trade—in the works of science and monuments of art—in invention and education—in all the elements of a vigorous and enlightened free people—our prosperity and progress are unprecedented in modern history. And Christianity so far has been the source and means of our National exaltation.

IV. Our Future will depend upon our adherence to the principles which ushered us into a national existence. The precepts of the religion of Jesus Christ must guide our way. These will save us from shipwreck, and point to a perpetuation, to remote generations, of our civil and religious liberty, and our free and enlightened Christian institutions. Out-root religion—separate from the wisdom and prudence it inculcates, and our glorious confederation exists in name only, perhaps also in song.

It has been asked, "are our liberties to remain? Will the future behold us still elevated and ascending on the way of real, enduring progress?

These are solemn questions—especially so in these times. Why! what times are these? Perilous times.

There has a root of bitterness sprung up among us which causes trouble. One has said, "our national bark will never be shipwrecked on the pebble of negro slavery;" thinking perhaps when that sentiment was uttered, that the philanthropy of the North would never say "let the Union slide"—"let the South secede!" for the reason that so far from freeing the slave it would only leave him more hopeless in a Southern Confederacy; and, that the patriotism of the South would not permit her to forsake the Union hallowed by so many consecrations of her sires and her loves.

But, said the speaker, my tongue falters in pronouncing the perils of the times.—Disunion and secession are common exclamations. Shall men, Christian freemen, regard the present crisis with such little concern? Talk about our glorious Union, dear to us by ten thousand memories, as though it were the foot ball of our sports? A Union, which Providence has sustained to work out the great problem of the redemption of Earth's nations? A Union, the best the world has seen, or Heaven beheld? God forbid.

Let, rather, efforts be made to stay the forces that would rend the sisterhood of States. Let us pray to Jehovah, and I utter this sentiment from this pulpit, under the impressive surroundings of this otherwise joyous thanksgiving; pray to Him who has been our Nation's Help and strength of salvation hitherto—that He may palsy the arm of the giant, who would dare, from whatever mercenary motives, to dash the crown of our glory to the dust and make us dissevered, discordant, belligerent States.

We intercede for our religious and educational institutions in stated times—may we not set apart a day for prayer to our God that the dangers which threaten our beloved country may be averted—and the difficulties hindering our national prosperity be speedily adjusted?

Whatever may be the causes disturbing our peace, we take this to lie back of all—the decline of national piety. Our rulers and people forget too much the "Fear of the Lord."

This, in the language of Isaiah to the Jewish nation—this, in the evangel of the text to ourselves as a nation, raised up in place of the Old Israel—a chosen and peculiar people—this is our treasure.

Fear the Lord, all ye people! Let Christianity purify the fountains of our national life—raising us above all party proscriptions—above all local jealousies—all sectional habits—and make us one in heart—one in aim—one in a glorious future—and our thanksgiving to-day will be but a type of the Thanksgiving Hallelujah chorused by our redeemed nation when the Millenium shall come!

The sermon was listened to with the strictest attention, and received general approbation.

Rev. Prof. MUHLENBERG closed with an appropriate prayer.

Rev. Mr. KEISER, and Rev. Drs. SCHMUCKER and BAUGHER, made some statements in reference to the distress in Kansas, and appealed feelingly to the Congregation for aid. A handsome collection was then taken up as a Thanksgiving offering to and for the starving hundreds of that unfortunate Territory.

The assemblage was dismissed with the Divine benediction.

The whole exercises were highly interesting, and every one felt gratified.

Alumni of Pennsylvania College.

At a meeting of the Alumni of this Institution in 1857, Hon. EDWARD MCPHERSON, Prof. M L STŒVER, Rev. R. HILL, D. WILLS, Esq, A. C. WEDEKIN, J. E. SMITH and B. SADTLER were appointed a Committee to make a General Report of the Association. The Committee have completed their labors and the report is now published in pamphlet form, a copy of which has been placed in our possession. It includes a list of the Alumni with their places of residence, their pursuits, the public positions held, and a notice of publications held by them.

The number of graduates is 302, located at present thus: Pennsylvania 178, Maryland 34, Virginia 18, Ohio 18, Illinois 14, New-York 9, North Carolina 8, South Carolina 3, New Jersey 3, Iowa 2, Alabama 2, Kentucky 1, Missouri 1, Georgia 1, Mississippi 1, California 1, Indiana 1, Texas 2, Nebraska 1, Canada 1, England 1, India 2. They have entered upon professions in the following proportions: Ministers 156, Lawyers 35, Physicians 19; Non-professional, or in preparatory study, 92. Of those licensed to preach, 14 are engaged as professors or teachers, or otherwise than in the constant discharge of ministerial duties; 2 are missionaries in India. Fifteen of the graduates are or have been connected with the press; whilst nearly an equal number hold or have held judicial and legislative positions.

The obituary report of 1858 notices three deaths, viz: Wm F. Creaver, Edward Minturn, and David W. Badham; 1859, Charles L. Baker and John S. Crumbaugh; 1860, David J. Eyler, David Stroh and Charles Henry Hersh.

A statement of the literary labors of the Alumni is also given, as shown in the pamphlets or books published by them.

The Report covers twenty-seven years, in which twenty-six classes were graduated. In 1836, there were no graduates. The first class consisted of 3, and the last of 19. Of the twenty-six classes, seven contained less than 10 members—the first being the smallest. Of the 302 graduates, 44 belong to the last three classes, who are, mainly, still preparing for active life. Twenty-six also are deceased. Almost one-half of the whole number of Alumni—138—have been graduated within the last ten years.

WHAT LINCOLN WILL OR CAN DO—"STRIKE, BUT HEAR!"—To the meanest hog thief; to the veriest assassin and murderer; to the coldest and craftiest rogue; to the most unprincipled forger and swindler, we award the chance of a full and fair trial. Surely the President elect of the United States is entitled to as much.—"Strike, but hear!" is the sentiment, alike of justice and of true courage. He is a poor moral coward who is afraid to listen to the self defence of his victim, or so insecure in his own position that he dare not give to the accused the chance to vindicate himself.—Memphis (Tenn.) Bulletin.

DIPTHERIA.—Steubenville, Ohio, and vicinity have suffered terribly from the ravages of Diptheria. The Herald says: "The disease had attacked both old and young, but has prevailed most generally among children, among whom it has been most fatal. The number of deaths from the diptheria in this city from the first of January, 1860, up to the present time, among children alone, is not far short of two hundred. The deaths among adults have been, probably, one-fourth of that number. Many families have been made desolate from the virulence of this disease."

THE GREAT GALE.—Sixty-seven Lives Known to be Lost.—The captains of vessels who were out in the late terrible gale on the lakes represent it as the severest by far of any experienced for many years past. It was so on Lake Michigan, Lake Huron, Lake Erie, and Lake Ontario. Such was the force and height of the waves that the crew were obliged to cling to the rigging for safety, and it was certain death for them to lose their hold. As far as ascertained, 67 lives are known to be lost.

☞Among the passengers of the ill-fated steamer Pacific burned last week on the Ohio river below Louisville, was a gentleman in the last stages of consumption, going South, attended by his wife, in the almost forlorn hope of better health. When the alarm was given, the wife seized her invalid husband in her arms, and carried or rather dragged him to the guards, reaching which she found his spirit already departed. Still she did not give him up, but sought to save the body for interment.—But in the excitement of the moment each looked out for himself, and as none would help her, the poor woman, unable to lift the body over the railing, was at last driven off by the advancing flames, and forced to leave the corpse in order to save herself.

A SUDDEN DEATH IN CHURCH.—During the services in the Presbyterian church in Aisquith street, near Gay, Baltimore, Rev. Mr. Carnahan, pastor, on Thursday forenoon, an appalling instance of sudden death occurred. Mrs. Catharine Crawford, residing with her daughter, Mrs. Orr, in Jefferson street, No. 20, while in her seat in the church, engaged in her devotion, singing at the time, suddenly sank back and expired. Those near her supposed she had fainted, but upon raising her it was found that the vital spark had fled. She was advanced in life, being some fifty or more years of age. The incident produced the most profound sensation in the congregation, and was made the theme of affecting remark by the pastor.

TERRIFIC SCENE.—A THOUSAND ANIMALS BURNT ALIVE.—We announced last week the burning of the Pacific at Uniontown, Kentucky, one of the finest steamers on the western waters. She had a very large quantity of live stock on board, and the burning of these poor creatures must have been a sickening sight. One account says, Mr. Robert Ford, a passenger, cut the halter of one of his fine horses, which swam ashore. A large bullock also swam out, but died as soon as it reached the shore.—The scene of the burning boat and its thousand head of live stock, all tied to the stake, a prey to the devouring flames, was fearful and horrible in the extreme. There were seven hundred and fifty sheep, and one hundred and thirty head of fat cattle, mules and horses, all burnt alive, with no chance of escape. In addition to the live stock, there was upwards of three hundred tons of pork, bacon, and flour on board, which, together with the destruction of the splendid steamer, involved a loss of nearly $100,000.

☞A singular card appears in the Rockport (Ill.) Advertiser. Rev. A. S. Finch warns the clergy against a woman, who, small in stature and wearing spectacles, met him at a camp meeting in Rockport and cajoled him into matrimony. Afterwards he ascertained that he was the third victim of her wiles. One of his predecessors lived at Bellville (C. W.), and the other resided in Wisconsin. The latter she left in a destitute condition, with three children to provide for.

COLD WEATHER.—At Williamsport, Pa., on Thursday, the canal was completely ice-bound, and its smooth surface was covered with hundreds of skaters, many of them ladies, who seemed to realize a high degree of enjoyment from indulgence in this healthful and exhilarating exercise. The river was also filled with floating ice, and the ground covered with snow. Rather a cold climate.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—Mr. Herman Updegraff, a citizen of Johnstown, and for several years past conductor of a freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad, was killed on Thursday afternoon, near Latrobe, by falling from his train, which passed over and mangled him in a most horrid manner. We did not learn the cause of the accident. Mr. Updegraff was a married man, and the father of several small children, all dependent on him for support.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A SON AND MOTHER.—George B. Wynans, fire-telegraph operator at the City Hall, in New York, died suddenly on Monday. The news was announced to his mother, who has been for a year past acting in the capacity of housekeeper to Mayor Wood. After a few moments, she remarked that she would go with the messengers to the house of her son; and turning round to go out of the room, her strength immediately failed her, and she fell to the floor lifeless. She was 58 years of age.

DIABOLICAL ATTEMPT.—A few days since, as the morning passenger train was running at a rapid rate, near Topton, on the East Pennsylvania Railroad, the engineer discovered a rail across the track, and by instant application of the brakes, succeeded in stopping the train in time to prevent mischief. A fellow was seen running off, who was chased and caught. He gave the name of Oberholtz, and was lodged in the jail. He acknowledged the crime.

WORTHY OF IMITATION.—Here is something worthy of imitation in this quarter, and in all other quarters where the same or a similar practice does not prevail. In a western town, recently, a "spelling match" took place, in which all the children were invited to participate. The prize, an Unabridged Dictionary, was awarded to a little girl about twelve years old, she having "stood up" the longest. School directors could not expend a few dollars of the public funds more usefully than in providing a Webster Unabridged to be awarded annually as a prize to the best speller in each of the public schools.

INFELICISSIMUS.—It is said that every Episcopal clergyman in Charleston has omitted the usual prayer for the President of the United States.—Exchange.

Poor old Buck! What is now to become of him, denied even the benefit of clergy?

A THIEF DETECTED BY A HEN.—A grain thief was detected at Pittsburg, Pa., the other day, by means of some hens, who followed a trail of scattered grain from the railroad depot, where it was stolen, to the house of the thief. The movements of the fowls were watched, and on searching the man's house the stolen grain was found and recovered.—The man was arrested.

A DAMPER ON PATRIOTISM.—About twenty young gentlemen of New Orleans, La., wishing to display their spirit, determined to wear no cloth except what was manufactured in a Southern State. So they bought some pieces of Kentucky jean, and had it made up into suits, but they discovered, when too late, that the Kentucky jean had been made in Massachusetts.

TAKING IT COOLLY.—The editor of the Democratic paper at La Crosse, Wisconsin, thus announces the defeat of his party in that section:

"The returns from this State come pouring along like buckwheat from the tail-end of a fanning mill, and just about as comfortable to read as that triangular grain is to sit on. We feel sort of weakish about the gizzard! We feel cold, chilly, clammy like, just on the small of the back, to read how this State—this Badger State, has acted! Jefferson county has turned over like a boy with the colic, and now lies groaning, back side up! Wisconsin has done it!—Everything is Lincoln. Even the rails must have voted. He will have more majority in this State than you can roll down hill! We have three hundred pounds of figures, but not enough to give half the majorities in Rock county even! "Go on with your old scow—it won't rain long!"—For President in 1864—Stephen A. Douglas.

SECESSION BONNET.—The Charleston Mercury gives the following description of a bonnet worn by a South Carolina lady:

"The bonnet is composed of white and black Georgia cotton, covered with a network of black cotton, the streamers ornamented with palmetto trees and Lone Stars, embroidered in gold thread, while the feathers are formed of white and black worsted."

What would our Lincoln ladies think of a distinctive bonnet of Connecticut corncobs, trimmed with pumpkin vines and ornamented with wooden nutmegs?—Hartford paper.

SERIOUS RESULTS OF BAD VENTILATION IN A CHURCH.—The importance of thorough ventilation was exemplified on Sunday, says the Providence Press, by unpleasant occurrences at the Universalist Church in Woonsocket, Rhode Island.—For some reason the furnace in the basement did not draw very well, and gas was diffused through the vestry during the session of the Sunday school, although its presence was hardly perceived by those who were in attendance. But when the children were dismissed and reached the fresh air, their strength failed and many of them tumbled to the ground, too weak to stand, while some were seized with vomiting and other violent symptoms of sickness. In the afternoon, after the congregation had assembled in the upper part of the house, and the preacher had commenced his discourse, one after another of the audience fainted, until the excitement became too great, and the exercises summarily closed. After the people had reached home, some were taken severely sick, and remained in that condition until late in the evening. The only reason assigned for the sickness is impure air.

☞It is said that the sounds, inlets, bays, and rivers of Eastern North Carolina are alive with ducks, geese, and swan, particularly the geese and swan. It is asserted by those who have passed their lives among the wild-fowl hunters of North Carolina that so many swans were never seen in one season before.

☞Some eight or ten years ago a gentleman by the name of Ingle, of Stafford county, Va., and formerly of Alexandria city, disappeared most mysteriously, and was believed to be murdered and sunk in Potomac creek. Search was made at that time, but no clue to his whereabouts could be had. Some day or two ago, whilst a fisherman was hauling his net in Potomac creek, it came in contact with a box containing the remains of a human being, supposed to be that of the lost Mr. Ingle, who was undoubtedly murdered and robbed and sunk in the creek, which is near by his former residence. Ingle was reputed wealthy at the time.

CURIOUS SIMILE.—Henry Ward Beecher delivered a half-sermon, half-political harangue at his church in Brooklyn on Sunday night, in which he used the following curious simile:

As men grow rich they grow mean.—Why I know men, pious men, who actually perjure themselves about the value of their property, that they may save what is justly due the city for taxes. They are as mean as—well—meanness has tunneled them from end to end, and the biggest one lies through the heart, and the Devil daily runs his train through and through.

☞The excitement in some parts of Virginia is increasing against strangers. Near Richmond, a man who would not tell a Vigilance Committee where he came from or what his business was in the neighborhood, was ridden on a rail. When the committee finished riding him about, he coolly informed them he was from Columbia, S. C. He spoke too late.

☞Gov. Hicks, of Maryland, having been requested to convene the Legislature of that State, denies the alleged causes for secession, and expresses confidence in the conservatism of the masses of both sections. He therefore declines granting the petition.

LEBANON, Ky., Dec. 1.—Intelligence from Columbia, in this State, states that fifteen negroes and one white man, their leader, have been hung by the citizens of Burksville for an attempted insurrection. No further particulars.

POISONED.—The overseers of the poor of Berkeley county, Va, were poisoned a few days ago at a dinner at the poor house, but have since recovered. Two paupers are suspected.

IMPORTS OF DRY GOODS.—The imports of foreign dry goods at New York during the month of November have fallen about half a million below the total for the same month of last year. Most all of the imports are warehoused.

FROM THE CRADLE TO THE GRAVE.—One of the most remarkable events in every day life that has ever come under observation, occurred in the suburbs of this city during the present week. A lady gave birth to a child, was married, and died the same day.—Louisville Journal.

A RICH AND SOLITARY OLD LADY.—The census reveals the fact that in one of the suburban towns of Boston there is a lady 76 years old, who possesses property estimated at $350,000, and whose family consists of but two persons beside herself, a domestic and a farm laborer.

ANOTHER RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The mail train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, coming east on Thursday morning, ran over an employee, belonging to a freight train, cutting off both his legs. The accident occurred at the tunnel, one mile west of Greensburg.—We did not learn the name of the injured man.

The Development of Union Sentiments at the South.

Governor Hicks, of Maryland, has positively declined to issue a call for a special session of the Legislature of that State.—The request for such a call was based upon the idea that Maryland should join the other Southern States in a common Convention to consult upon the state of public affairs. Governor "Sam" Houston, of Texas, has also so far refused to issue a similar call, refusing upon the ground that Lincoln's election according to the recognized forms of the Constitution, is, within itself, no ground for secession.

Gov. Magoffin, of Kentucky, in a very long letter, has assumed a similar position. The Lexington organ of Vice President Breckenridge has addressed strong words of warning to the Cotton States against extreme measures. Mr. Guthrie, Secretary of the Treasury under President Pierce, has spoken openly against disunion. He is the heaviest property-holder in Kentuky, and has been for many years the strongest leader of the Kentucky Democracy.

Emerson Etheridge has arrived at Washington from Tennessee, and declared that a vast majority of the people of that State are for the Union as it is. The whole Bell-Everett and Douglas parties of that State are a unit against dissolution.

Sherrard Clemens, the member of Congress from Wheeling District, in Virginia, has uttered bold, defiant denunciations against disunion in a letter to his constituents. Even Garnett, also, a member of Congress from the same State, and heretofore regarded as an exponent of extreme action such as South Carolina contemplates.

A. M. McDonald has openly avowed Union sentiments in the Legislature of Georgia, and a sharp debate has ensued upon that avowal—a debate that will serve to remove the pressure of terrorism from the open avowal of sentiments friendly to the integrity of the confederacy. Besides, the telegraph announces that the Legislature of Georgia has performed the constitutional function of choosing Presidential electors. From the state of the vote it is evident that the majority of the Legislature favor moderate councils. The seventy members who declined to participate in the choice are, we take it, those who favor extreme measures.

Parson Brownlow on Mr Lincoln.

The Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig, edited by Parson Brownlow, makes a candid effort to deal honestly with the Republicans. Of Mr. Lincoln, he says:

Mr. Lincoln himself, is no doubt a patriotic man, and a sincere lover of his country. He is to-day, what he has always been, an old Clay Whig, differing in no respect—not even upon the subject of slavery—from the sage of Ashland.

And again:

Did Lincoln receive the suffrages of the North under a pledge that, if elected, he would disregard his oath of office, violate the Constitution, and subvert the Union? Certainly not, for had he given that pledge the day his election was announced, the entire South would have been united in carrying out a most thorough and determined revolution, and thousands of true men at the North would have joined us! But now that Lincoln is elected, will he execute the purposes of abolitionism? This he cannot do under the solemn oath to be administered at his inauguration. And who will say that he intends taking that oath with treason on his heart, and perjury on his tongue? We have no right to judge of Lincoln by anything but his acts, and these can only be appreciated after his inauguration. He knows very well that he cannot violate the Constitution in any serious particular, without rendering the dissolution of the Union necessary on the part of the South, and thereby involving the North in alarming troubles and certain ruin. The Constitution was planned by its sagacious and patriotic authors, to protect the South in just such an emergency as this. If, then, Lincoln is not a patriot at heart—and we assume no such thing—the Constitution and his oath will make him administer the Government patriotically.

☞The secessionists have made no important advances since our last issue, and except in South Carolina and a few other isolated places, the project is received with little favor. But to give all the secession talk and gabble of the newspapers and gabblers is useless. The Union still exists, and if Mr. Buchanan can manage to hold it together until after the 4th of March next, we have the utmost confidence that all will be safe for the next four years.

But seriously, this disunion cry is all bosh. There is no danger of disunion, and after the stock speculators, and sensation newspapers in the North get through with their jobs on hand, the whole thing will eat itself up in South Carolina.

Damages for Defamation.—A Mrs. Campbell brought suit last week in the Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland county, Pa., against Mr. Garvey for defamation. The jury gave her $4,700 damages.

Singular Phenomenon.—Miss Ormsbee, a citizen of Warren, R. I., has been deprived of sight and the power to articulate a single word for the last fifty-five years. About three weeks ago, as she described it, without any extra effort on her own part, she began to converse, and now holds conversation with all who visit her. Miss Ormsbee is now seventy-five years old, and became dumb when she was twenty years of age.—Eastern Argus.

☞Pennsylvania made the first turnpike road in the United States, laid the first rail road, established the first water-works, ran the first locomotive, established the first hospital, the first law school, the first public museum, the first hall of music, and the first library in the world opened freely to all. It has also given the largest Republican majority of any State in the Union at the late election just passed. Good for the Old Keystone!

Death of a Large Man.—The Cincinnati papers note the death of Jackson Thorpe, and remark that he was probably at the period of his death one of the fleshiest men in the United States. He attained at one time during his life the great weight of four hundred and ten pounds, and he has not in three years past weighed less than three hundred and sixty pounds.

☞Our neighbor Polley has just completed a very neat brick building opposite the Globe Hotel, where he and Mr. Cook have everything in very beautiful order.—The former has every variety of Stoves, of the rarest patterns, and at very cheap rates; whilst friend Cook attends to the Tin-work, Spouting, &c., promptly, and executes work in the best manner. Give them a call in their new habitation.

☞Sheads & Buehler's Store is well worthy of a visit just at this time. We doubt whether, even in our largest cities, so fine a display of Stoves can be found. Their large room is stored full of Stoves of every pattern; also, every variety of Hollow Ware, Sheet Iron Ware, Tin Ware, Planished Ware, Japan Ware—embracing, indeed, everything in the house-furnishing line. Also, Sausage Cutters, Sausage Stuffers, Lard Presses, &c, &c. They are prepared to sell wholesale and retail, Tin Ware, and Sheet Iron Ware, of their own manufacture—keeping a sufficient number of hands to supply any demand. Their assortment of Lumber is very large; also, Coal, of every kind.

☞Remember, Strumous or Scrofulous affections are the curse, the blight, of mankind. They are vile and filthy, as well as fatal. They arise from impurity and contamination of the blood, and are to be seen all around us, everywhere. Thousands daily are consigned to the direful effects of this disease. But why trifle any longer, when the remedy is at hand? Dr. Lindsey's Blood Searcher—the only effectual preparation now before the people, that does its work mildly and safely. It does not close the issue superficially, while

☞The Supreme Court of the State of New York have issued a perpetual injunction against Eaton and Jenkins for counterfeiting Ayer's Cathartic Pills, holding them responsible for the cruel imposition in what they have done, and restraining them from further like injury to the public. If any class of our people more than another needs the interposition of law to shield them from imposture, it is the sick and suffering, who are unable to protect themselves. A remedy so universally employed as Ayer's Pills by all classes, both to cure and prevent disease, should, as it does, have every security the law can afford it, from counterfeit and imitation. —Cabinet, Schenectady.

Grand Jury Report.

TO the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Adams:

The Grand Inquest of the county aforesaid, for the November Sessions of 1860, having concluded their labors, respectfully report (as a gratifying fact, speaking well for the morals of the county), that but three bills of indictment were presented to us for our action, and those of light grade.

Our time was mainly occupied with the consideration of an application for the incorporation of the borough of Littlestown, and the consideration of Bridge Views.

The Grand Jury report that they visited the Prison, under the supervision of the Sheriff, Samuel Wolf, and found it well kept, and in excellent order; and but one prisoner in custody at the present time.

The Grand Jury also visited the Alms House, now accommodating about one hundred inmates, and cannot but express our gratification at witnessing the neatness and order of things exhibited, under the careful management of Jacob Culp, the Steward. The Farm presents a very promising appearance.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

About 90 Acres in Timber, much of it of the best kinds, including Locust, Poplar and Walnut. It is supposed that the most valuable poplar timber in the County is on this property, and within ¼ of a mile of a good Saw-Mill. A young Apple Orchard, containing 200 trees of choice selected fruit, planted two or three years ago, a young Peach Orchard of 100 trees, of best kinds, selected. These orchards, when in full bearing, will add greatly to the value of the property, as the quality of Adams county fruit is known and held in high esteem in the Cities. Numerous springs are on the Farm, one of which is a large sulphur spring, that may become of great value as soon as the Gettysburg and Waynesboro', or Gettysburg and Chambersburg Railroads are finished, as the property is within one mile of these Railroads. By these Roads a constant supply of Franklin county lime may be had cheaply, so as to improve the land to any degree of fertility desired. There is a HOUSE and good substantial Barn on the Farm.

ALSO—A Tract of Mountain-Land, situate in same township, adjoining lands of Thaddeus Stevens, and others, containing 35 Acres, more or less.

☞The property will be shown to any person wishing to purchase, and the price made known on application to Isaac Robinson, Fairfield, Robert G. McCreary, Geo. W. McClellan, Esqrs., or Col. J. D. Paxton, Gettysburg.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables, the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled with that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:—Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30x38 inches, entitled, "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS."

The Superb Engraving, which every subscriber will receive, entitled, "Falstaff Mustering his Recruits," is one of the most beautiful and popular engravings ever issued in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving, in Justice Shallow's office, the recruits which have been gathered for his "ragged regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars.

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of the 31st of January, 1861, at which time the books will close and the premiums will be given to subscribers.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS

A SUPERLATIVE

INVIGORATING CORDIAL

To the Citizens of New Jersey & Pennsylvania, Apothecaries, Druggists, Grocers, and Private Families.

Wolfe's Pure Cognac Brandy.
Wolfe's Pure Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine.
Wolfe's Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum.
Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whisky.
ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schnapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

GEORGE H. ASHTON,
No. 832 Market st., Phil'a., Sole Agent for Phil'a.

Read the following from the New York Courier:

Enormous Business for one New York Merchant.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his brandies and wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.

Rohrer's Practical Calculator,

A Book of plain Rules and Calculations for Business Operations, by MARTIN M. ROHRER, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition. Published by J. B. LIPPINCOTT & Co. Philada.

THIS Work contains 201 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly PRACTICAL, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of Editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the HANDIEST BOOK OF REFERENCE, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published.

Every Example in the book is WORKED OUT IN FULL and stated in a plain manner, so that when a parallel case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in readily solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULATOR is so simple, that any one who knows how to ADD, SUBTRACT, MULTIPLY, or DIVIDE, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required.

The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about spending time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able AT A MOMENT, by reference, to arrive at the TRUE RESULT. The CALCULATOR differs in this respect from all Arithmetics of the day and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathematical works is in the hands of the teacher in the school-room—IT FACILITATES TIME AND CORRECTNESS.

The Work treats of the Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick Work, of Stone & Stone Work, of Grain and Grain Bins, of Coal & Coal Bins, of Wood, of Solids, of Circular, Square, or Irregular Vessels, of Cisterns and Vats, of Roofing, of Plasterers', Painters', Glaziers,' Pavers', Plumbers', Paper Hangers', and Upholsterers' Work. It treats of Currency and of Foreign and Domestic Exchange, of the Decimal System, of Reduction and its extended application to Business, of Simple and Compound Interest, and their entire application to Business transactions, with the laws and usages governing and regulating the same, together with numerous commercial Forms,—of Legal Tender, of Partial Payments on Notes, of Banking and Bank Discount, of Equation of Payments and of Partnership Accounts, of Assessment of Taxes; of Weights and Measures, of Square and cubic Measure of the Square Root and its Application to Business, of Surface, of Excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement to mention.

It is just the Book for the Farmer, the Mechanic, the Artisan, or the Professional man. It has proven a valuable auxiliary to the Lawyer, the Justice of the Peace, the Conveyancer, and Real Estate Broker, to the Assessor, the Banker, the clerk, to the civil Engineer and the Surveyor, to the Carpenter and Bricklayer, to the Stone Mason and the Plasterer, to the Paper Hanger and Upholsterer, to the Paver and the Tiler, &c. &c; each and all will find it adapted to their various wants better than any book published.

☞Mailed (post paid) to any part of the United States upon receipt of the money. Price of a single copy, in cloth, 60 cents, or two copies for $1 00. Bound in pocket-book form, Morocco, $1 00 per copy. Address,

Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher,

A standard Medicine for the speedy radical, and effectual cure of all Diseases arising from impurity of the Blood

This medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula,	Cancerous formations,
Cutaneous Diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes,
Old Stubborn Ulcers,	Scald Head,
Tetter affections,	Rheumatic Disorders,
Dyspepsia,	Costiveness,
Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial Diseases,	General Debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach,

Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napier township, who on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford county, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which his LIP, NOSE, AND A PORTION OF HIS LEFT CHEEK WERE ENTIRELY EATEN AWAY! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four Bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Bleakney, of Elderton, Armstrong county, Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansonville, Clearfield county, who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Meisel, residing in Carrollton, Cambria County, Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than Mr. McCreary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.

In all cases of Asthma, Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints, in the South and West, where these diseases prevail, they will be found invaluable. Planters, farmers and others, who once use these Medicines, will never afterwards be without them.

DR MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the U. States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without even a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, &c., should be addressed to

Sixpence a Day,

ENOUGH FOR A FORTUNE!—A London paper states: There is now in an almshouse at Bristol an old man who states that for sixty years he spent six pence a day in drink but never was intoxicated. How much would this sixpence a day put by every year at five per cent. compound interest, amount to in sixty years, inquired a thoughtful neighbor? Putting down the first year's saving (365 sixpences) equal to $43 54, he added the interest, and thus went on year by year, until he found that in the 60th year the sixpence a day reached the startling sum of $14,336 28. Judge of the old man's surprise when told that by saving his sixpence a day and depositing it in a Savings Institution he might now, at the end of 60 years, been worth that noble sum $14,336 28, which would have bought him a fine Farm, or Town Mansion; and surrounded him with comforts and luxuries, and left a handsome estate to his children after him. He had, and hundreds now in our midst have, but to deposit sixpence a day in the Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings Institution of Adams county to accomplish this result.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the subjoined varieties of Disease:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully. Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous attack of Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Eruptions by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes; "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

DR. S. FELLER'S FAMILY MEDICINES

ARE the only preparations of the kind placed before the public under the name of ECLECTIC. They are called Eclectic because they are carefully and scientifically selected—the BEST from all the GOOD—and approved by the most scientific men in the United States. They do not contain any Mercury, Antimony, or Opium, or anything that would be deleterious to the most delicate constitution.

All who understand the curing of disease know that medicines only assist nature, and unless they act and harmonize with nature, disease cannot be cured. Want of a proper knowledge of these facts causes many of our fellow citizens to go down to an untimely grave.

I can therefore recommend this preparation with the utmost confidence, and am fully persuaded, from past experience at the bed-side of the sick, that it will give very general, if not universal satisfaction. Yet, at the same time, I do not pretend to say that it is a CURE-ALL, or that it is, in all cases and circumstances, infallible. For when a remedy is set forth as "Cure-All," "Infallible," &c., the conclusion with me is irresistible, that the proprietor himself believes his remedy to be a humbug, and designed from the start to deceive the public.

SAMUEL CRONCE,

Wholesale Agent, York Sulphur Springs, Adams county, Pa., and for sale by Dr. Buehler, Gettysburg; J. S. Hollinger, Heidlersburg; Jacob King, Hunterstown; and Jacob A. Gardner, Petersburg.

We would say to the public, that all we want is a fair trial, and it will recommend itself.
